Betreff: First tournament

Hi Heiko,

Played my first tournament yesterday since our training. I can't say that I'm hitting my 7iron 150m or played a 69, but I had the best competition round I've had in 2 years or more.
A 77 on a par 71 course, 6 over par and hdcp improvement 9,6 to 9,0. And it would have been better if I hadn't gotten nervous over the last few holes. Finished with 4 straight bogeys. Placed second in a field of 36, with mostly single digit hcps.
The biggest improvement I'm seeing is increased accuracy, an almost automatic feel to the swing, as if nothing can go wrong, and I'm hitting irons with a lot more spin that are really checking up on the greens. 2 birdies yesterday with iron shots right at the flag that spun just like on TV.
So, thanks for the help, and am looking forward to our next lesson. I've got a pretty bust schedule the next month or so, but I'm still trying to put together a weekend in Hamburg with guys from the club. Hopefully sooner than later.

All the best,
John
